

I strongly urge you to allow consumers the right to keep their cellular number if they switch providers. This is a decision that consumers should be able to have a voice in. Please do not allow the cellular businesses to have their way in this issue.

Thank you,

Kathi Frinchaboy